Present: Cllrs Sherriff, Pritchard and Bolland (Chairman)

Also present: Dist Cllr Jones

2. TO RECEIVE REPORTS FROM REPRESENTATIVES ON OUTSIDE BODIES

Dist Cllr Jones reported:

- a. ELDC offices are to be re-located to the old college in Horncastle.
- b. There are to be two reservoirs sited near Grantham and near Sleaford.
- c. A Teenage Market is to be held in Horncastle, this is for young crafters to sell their goods with the stalls being free of charge.
- d. The three councils are currently looking for tenders from businesses to be responsible for CCTV with regard to littering and dog fouling.
- e. ID will be required when voting in the elections next year. Volunteers are required on the day to work at polling stations.
- f. Lincolnshire Police have a free safeguarding wristband for anyone living with dementia. The wristband hold details of the person to call should the wearer be out and about and unsure of where they are.
- g. The Clerk asked about the difference in dates for paying the precept in East Lindsey compared with that in Boston Borough, if the finance is under the same 'umbrella'.
- h. There is an issue with planning too, no response has been received for a question emailed on 14 September.
- i. The reply received regarding the outstanding applications dated 2020and 2021 is not really good enough.
- j. Dist Cllr Jones will look into the above matters and report back to the Parish Council.
